

Congratulations RTI!

TechALERT[®] has been awarded the Innovation Award from Professional Tool & Equipment News (PTEN) for 2008! Professional Tool & Equipment News is a well-known trade publication in the Automotive Aftermarket Industry with a circulation of over 100,000.

TechALERT[®] was entered into the annual contest and voted on by PTEN's panel of active automotive technicians. There were over 80 entries and 32 winners were selected from several different categories. Winning products were selected based on how innovative they are in the automotive industry and if they are unique compared to other products. TechALERT[®] will be featured in the March 2008 issue of Professional Tool & Equipment News Magazine.

Great job RTI Team!!
