Re: A new member of the RTI Team

Dear Professionals,

RTI Technologies, Inc. is proud to announce the appointment of Kelvin A. Butz, P.E. as its Vice President of Marketing. Kelvin brings a wealth of experience to RTI with over 25 years in the commercial transportation industry. Prior to joining RTI, he was the Director of Marketing and Technical Sales for Morgan Corporation, the largest manufacturer of truck van bodies in North America and prior to that, served as Marketing Vice President for Jerr-Dan Corporation, the world's largest single nameplate manufacturer of towing and recovery equipment. Kelvin's career also spanned over twenty years with Freightliner Corporation, holding positions in engineering, product management, and marketing, where he ultimately became Director of Sales and Marketing for Freightliner Custom Chassis Corporation. Please help RTI welcome Kelvin to our industry! If you would like to introduce yourself to Kelvin you may reach him at the contact information provided below:
